WEDNESDAY MORNING DECEMBER 5, 1866. THE ARREST OF JOHN M. SUR-

RATT.
The news of the arrest of this notoriou man is a subject for rejoicing throughout the civilized world and must strike a terror to all such evil-doers and impress upon them the solemn fact that in these days of steam and telegraph there is no spot on the habita-ble globe, not even in the benighted regions of Egypt, where a great offender against law

The official papers, on the subject, will show that for many long months the Gov-ernment have been watching this man, who, first was only suspected and who was serving in a certain regiment of the Papal Zouaves. A serious difficulty here arose. No extradition treaty existed between this Government and the Papal States; conse-Government and the Papal States; consequently if identified, Suranyar could not to themselved. The first thing to be done was to identify the man. After great precaution and the lapse of considerable times this was accomplished beyond doubt. The next thing was to communicate the fact to the Pope and obtain his permission to have the next thing was to communicate the fact to the Pope and obtain his permission to have the next to the Pope and obtain his permission to have the next to the Pope and obtain his permission to have the next to the Pope and obtain his permission to the Cinted States. Gen. Kino, our Minister to Rome, was intrusted with this important duty, and it gives us pleasure to be able to state that the Pope, upon the testimony of identity being shown him, immediately ordered the arrest of Sunaars and directed his surrender to the United States. This is official. The foctal facts about his "especial for the Popal officers are not known yet, as they have not been received at the State Department. His escape into Italy was not to remain long, as it is known that he loop passage on board of a vessel and crossed the Mediterranean Sea into Egypt, where our Consul General is vested with almost table and to remain long, as it is known that he loop passage on board of a vessel and crossed the Mediterranean Sea into Egypt, where our Consul General is vested with almost table to make the Mediterranean Sea into Egypt, where our Consul General is vested with almost table to be made to the medition. Star Farkersco, Dec. 3.—The United States steamer Vanderbilt, from Honolulu November 22d, arrived to-day.

A letter from Montenegres, the Imperial commander at Acapulco, dated Nov. 24th, does not seem to meditate an immediate evacuation of that place. It says that the French war ship Talisman left there with orders for Marshal Bazaine to bring 400 of the 1,500 men campaigning in Tehauntepec, and that their arrival would dispel all chance of the Liberals taking possession of Acaand that their arrival would dispel all chance of the Liberals taking possession of Acapulco. It further says that operations will be immediately commenced against the other ports in the State of Gurrero, and that the boasted Liberal victory near Coloma was only a small affair—some 105 men having been surprised and overpowered by a superior force. Eighty-five of the number had arrived safely at Coloma.

RICHMOND, VA., Dec. 4.—The press of this city comment upon the President's message in terms of approval. The Examiner considers its spirit conservative and patriotic, but utterly rejects his test oath and foreign policy. The Times commends the ability of the message, and says the force and clearness of its logic is one of the most crushing exposures of radical inconsistency that has yet appeared. The Whig refers to the moderation of the message. The Dispatch says no new arguments on the restoration question are used, and the South has little to hope from such a representation as the President favors. The Enquirer says the message is very judicious, well conceived and well expressed—firm without being aggressive, moderate without timidity. ange is very June... well expressed—firm without moderate without timidity.

Terrible Accident to a Relirend

Cincinnati, Dec. 4.—A terrible secident occurred at Zacewillo, bhio, alcont o'clock this morning. The law from bridge across the Muskingum river at that place broke down, carrying with it the morning passenger train bound east. Particulars not yet received. It is supposed that a large number of lives have been lost.
